

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Written by the Student Safety Committee: Myumi P, Johnny S, Marietta G, Esthy K, Georgia M and Paolo F

Rationale:

The safety of all students at Our Lady's school is important. Students at our lady's should not feel unsafe or threatened by anyone. The students at Our Lady's should not see, hear, feel or say anything harmful or unsafe to themselves or others, including both Students, staff, parents and visitors All members of the school community should have a safe and fun environment in which to learn, play, create and socialise.

Who:

This Code of Conduct covers all students, all staff, Parents, priests and visitors to the school including C.R.Ts, Contractors, Technicians and providers of any school camps, excursions or incursions.

Harm:

Harm is any sort of violence, inappropriate or racist language, shouting, swearing actions or bullying Including cyber bullying, inappropriate written messages, emails, comments or hand gestures It includes damaging other people's things and school property This includes actions towards students, staff and parents

What?

- Not to be in a room with other students without an adult.
- Don't talk to strangers over the fence.
- Don't encourage bullying by joining in, or saying nothing, instead stand up to that person.
- If you see, hear or do something wrong, there may harm someone say something
- Stay out of your classroom at Snack and Lunch
- Stay where you can see the teacher at snack and lunch
- Do not respond to a cyber bully instead take a screenshot and report it
- Find a trusted adult /friend and talk to them
- Do not think violence can fix problem it only cause bigger problems

Exclusion of others

Students should never be left out of a game or learning task. Students should never be looked at differently from others and all students should be treated the same no matter their size, religion, culture, race or gender.

Behaviour at School Events

When members of Our Lady's community are at excursions, incursions or camps or when other people visit the school respect should be shown to everyone we meet.

Our Lady's School Rules

We show our school values in our words and actions

We follow directions

We keep our hands, feet and objects to ourselves

We move around the school safely

We treat all property with care

We speak appropriately and listen respectfully