Dear Parent,

Staff News

In this week's newsletter I am informing our school community that two members of our staff will be leaving Our Lady's at the end of this term.

Mrs Christina Trypis came to Our Lady's School in 2009 and has worked as a classroom teacher and over the last four years as Learning and Teaching/Student Wellbeing Leader. Mrs Trypis has been an innovative and professional educator who has worked tirelessly and passionately to improve both student learning and student wellbeing. On behalf of the Our Lady's school community I give her our heartfelt thanks for her immense care and dedication to the children, families and staff of Our Lady's School.

Mrs Trypis is leaving Our Lady's to do some travelling around Australia with her husband, pursue some further study and perhaps even embark on her long held dream to write a book! Mrs Trypis we will be the first to buy your book! We wish you all the very best of luck and God's blessings as you begin your new journey. We will miss you.

Miss Lynda Ferrara started at Our Lady's school in 2015 as a Graduate Teacher and over the year and a half that she has been a staff member of our school we have seen her blossom into a confident and dedicated educator. Miss Ferrara has shared many of her excellent dancing skills with the students and helped to create the Glee Club which is offered as an alternative activity for students during lunchtime. We very much appreciate the time and energy you put into all you do.

Miss Ferrara will be embarking on a unique opportunity to participate in Professional Development in London which will include teaching in a variety of different schools. She will also spend some time travelling throughout Europe. We wish Miss Ferrara all the very best in all her future endeavours and sincerely thank her for all the care and excellent education she has provided for the children under her care. Miss Ferrara we wish you all the very best of luck and God's blessings as you begin a new chapter of your life. We will miss you.

Our Teachers

Jesus, when you lived on earth, people called you 'Teacher'. Our teachers are like you when they teach us about God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - about Mary, about heaven, about angels, about saints, about being good, about sin, about suffering, about death, about praying, about adding up, about spelling, about writing, about computers, and lots of other things.

Help our teachers as they work hard to teach us, help them when they are tired or worried, give them lots of fun in being teachers. Please bless our teachers and their families.

Farewell Bishop Long

What a success!

Many thanks and congratulations to our Parents and Friends, parent helpers and everyone who braved the cold, wet day on Saturday to make our Bunnings BBQ such a success.

Thank you to everyone who bought a sausage and came to say hello, because of you the.....

Parents and Friends have raised over $1056.85!

Special thanks to the helpers and Parents and Friends Committee for all their hard work in setting up, running the stall during the day and the packing up at the end of the day.

A special thank you also to the parents who donated money - Rebecca Farmer, Justine Webster and Suzy McNaughton. This money helped to cover much of the cost of the items.

School Review Update

As you are aware all schools undertake a very thorough review every four years. The school is reviewed in the following five spheres of schooling:

- Education in Faith
- Learning and Teaching
- Student Wellbeing
- Leadership and Management
- School Community.

The reviewers, Christine Wakeling and Mary Lovelock have been working in our school during this week. On Tuesday they met with diverse members of our school community including: students, staff, parents and Father Peter. On Thursday they met with the Review Panel to set directions for the school over the next four years. After the school holidays they will present their report. The feedback we have received from the reviewers has been very positive in all the five spheres of schooling. The review process has been a very positive experience which will renew the school and re-imagine an even better future for our school and all who come here.

Yours sincerely,

Patrizia Bertani

Thanks, Our Lady's P&F Committee

Your sins are forgiven

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

Gospel Lk 7:36 – 8:3

One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to a meal. When he arrived at the Pharisee's house and took his place at table, a woman came in, who had a bad name in the town. She had heard he was dining with the Pharisee and had brought with her an alabaster jar of ointment. She waited behind him at his feet, weeping, and her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them away with her hair; then she covered his feet with kisses and anointed them with the ointment.

When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, 'If this man were a prophet, he would know who this woman is that is touching him and what a bad name she has.' Then Jesus took him up and said, 'Simon, I have something to say to you.' 'Speak, Master,' was the reply. 'There was once a creditor who had two men in his debt; one owed him five hundred denarii, the other fifty. They were unable to pay, so he pardoned them both. Which of them will love him more?' 'The one who was pardoned more, I suppose,' answered Simon. Jesus said, 'You are right.'

Then he turned to the woman. 'Simon,' he said, 'you see this woman? I came into your house, and you poured no water over my feet, but she has poured out her tears over my feet and wiped them away with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but she has been covering my feet with kisses ever since I came in. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. For this reason I tell you that her sins, her many sins, must have been forgiven her, or she would not have shown such great love. It is the man who is forgiven little who shows little love.' Then he said to her, 'Your sins are forgiven.' Those who were with him at table began to say to themselves, 'Who is this man, that he even forgives sins?' But he said to the woman, 'Your faith has saved you; go in peace.'

Now after this he made his way through towns and villages, preaching, and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom of God. With him went the Twelve, as well as certain women who had been cured of evil spirits and ailments: Mary surnamed the Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and several others who provided for them out of their own resources.
